Create an ultra-photorealistic live-action Japanese supernatural action sequence with high-budget Hollywood cinematography, realistic physics, dark fantasy atmosphere, and practical-feeling VFX. A Japanese female shinobi with long black hair, wearing a fitted black ninja outfit, layered dark robe, forearm wraps, and traditional black boots, stands on a devastated battlefield surrounded by ruined shrines, broken stone structures, cracked ground, and swirling dust.

HAND SEALS: She faces a powerful enemy and rapidly performs precise ninja hand seals. Strong winds intensify as the camera pushes toward her focused face. She completes the final seal and forcefully shouts in Japanese, 「死鬼封尽！」 (“SHIKI FŪJIN!”). A powerful shockwave blasts dust and debris outward.

REAPER MANIFESTATION: A gigantic terrifying Shinigami materializes behind her, towering over the battlefield with a pale corpse-like face, terrifying supernatural eyes, long wild white hair, dark ancient Japanese robes, and enormous spectral arms. The camera circles around them, revealing its immense scale as wind and debris react naturally to its presence.

SPIRITUAL CHAINS: The Shinigami extends its enormous hand, releasing thick supernatural chains that wrap around the enemy's torso, arms, and legs. The enemy struggles desperately as the chains drag them backward across the cracked battlefield, scattering stones and dust.

SOUL EXTRACTION: The Reaper's spectral arm passes harmlessly through the female shinobi and reaches the enemy. Its enormous hand grabs the enemy's spiritual essence, forcibly extracting a translucent humanoid soul from the intact physical body. The soul stretches and struggles against the supernatural force while the chains hold the enemy in place.

FINAL SEAL: The Shinigami pulls the soul into its open mouth and absorbs it. A massive shockwave erupts across the battlefield. The enemy collapses to their knees, completely immobilized. The woman releases her hand seal, remaining calm and fearless as the gigantic Reaper fades into the drifting dust behind her. End with a dramatic wide shot of the woman standing alone amid the ancient ruins.

VISUAL & AUDIO: Ultra-realistic skin textures, natural hair movement, detailed fabric physics, cinematic lighting, volumetric dust, realistic supernatural effects, dynamic camera movements, and consistent character appearance. No music, narration, subtitles, or additional dialogue. Only natural battlefield sounds, powerful wind, supernatural rumbling, chains, soul extraction effects, and the clearly pronounced Japanese activation phrase. Avoid anime, cartoon visuals, cheap CGI, excessive neon glow, distorted anatomy, inconsistent faces, unrealistic physics, blood, and gore.
