No reference image: this prompt ran on its own. The title (RULE 02) and the two words under the figures (REWRITER, GENERATOR) were added afterwards in editing, not by the model.

9:16 vertical, 10 seconds, one locked-off wide shot, the camera never moves, one continuous shot, no edit. A seamless pale lilac studio backdrop curves smoothly into a pale lilac floor, soft diffuse light from above, soft round floor shadows. Matte clay 3D render. Two smooth clay figures with blank featureless heads, no faces, no eyes, no mouth, no hair, like artist mannequins wearing clothes. The two figures are side by side, one in the left half of the frame and one in the right half, both full body and small in frame, with plain empty backdrop above them and plain empty floor below them. Plain everywhere, no writing.

LEFT: a figure in a charcoal-grey hoodie sits on a small stool at a low white desk, writing with a pencil on a long paper scroll. The scroll runs off the desk and lies in loose paper loops on the floor around the stool. He stays seated in this same spot for the whole film.

RIGHT: a figure in a bright orange tracksuit stands on one softly glowing white square tile, holding in both hands a small grey box with one big round button on top.

0:00 to 0:02. Already moving in the first frame. The right figure presses the button with his thumb. A new glowing white tile, like a softly lit empty picture frame, slides in under his feet and lifts him one step higher. The left figure writes, crosses out the line, and writes it again.
0:02 to 0:06. The right figure presses the button about once a second. Each press adds one more glowing tile under his feet, so a neat tower of glowing tiles grows beneath him and lifts him steadily upward. The left figure keeps rewriting, and the paper loops pile higher around his stool, up to his knees.
0:06 to 0:08. The right figure, standing on the tall glowing tower, rises out of the top of the frame. The paper pile on the left reaches his chest.
0:08 to 0:10. The left figure stops writing, pencil still in his hand, and slowly tilts his blank head up toward the top of the glowing tower, sitting chest-deep in paper. The film ends on the tall glowing tower beside the paper heap.

Sound: music only, a soft synth pulse with one bright chime on each button press, paper rustling on the left. No dialogue.
