These prompts ran in order and the later ones use reference images: the sheets, frames and stills made by the earlier image prompts. Make those first, then upload them with each later prompt where it says image 1, @Image1 and so on. The heading above each prompt names the tool and format it ran with.

SHEET SET · nano_banana_2 (served as Nano Banana Pro) · Higgsfield · 16:9 2K still

Environment reference sheet on a pale cream background: an empty scene plate of a present-day Mumbai suburban railway station platform, no people, no train. Four photoreal panels in a 2x2 grid, each with only a small label VIEW A, VIEW B, VIEW C, VIEW D. VIEW A: the exact camera position and composition of @Image1 (composition only; ignore its black-and-white 1896 look): camera locked at chest height on the platform, the track runs from the far centre into the lower-left foreground, the platform fills the right half and recedes to a vanishing point. VIEW B: the reverse angle looking back along the platform. VIEW C: close on the platform edge, the worn yellow tactile strip and the drop to the rails. VIEW D: a high wide overview of the platform and track. Details in every view: grey concrete platform with a worn yellow tactile edge strip, steel-pillared shelter canopy with a corrugated roof on the right, a small tea stall, a pedestrian footbridge crossing far down the line, overhead catenary wires on steel masts, ballast and two rail tracks, hazy apartment towers and low hills in the distance, hard late-morning sun. Photoreal documentary photography, natural colour. Apart from the four view labels: No text, no letters, no logos, no numbers, no signboards with writing, no watermarks anywhere in the image.

SHEET TRAIN · nano_banana_2 · Higgsfield · 16:9 2K still Vehicle reference sheet on a pale cream background for a fictional present-day Mumbai-style suburban electric commuter train (EMU), unbranded. Five photoreal panels: the front cab in three-quarter view with its headlamp on; the cab straight-on; the side of one coach; a close-up of a wide open doorway with no door, a vertical steel grab pole in the middle and commuters' hands on it; the roof with a pantograph touching the overhead wire. Livery: cream body with one broad maroon band below the windows, grey steel underframe, barred windows, real dust, rust streaks and wear. No text, no letters, no logos, no numbers, no signboards with writing, no watermarks anywhere in the image. No route boards, no coach numbers.

SHEET CROWD · nano_banana_2 · Higgsfield · 16:9 2K still Wardrobe and casting reference sheet on a pale cream background: eight fictional commuters (invented people, not based on any real person), full body, front view, standing in one row. 1: young office worker in a pale blue shirt with a backpack, holding a phone. 2: woman in a printed cotton saree carrying a cloth shopping bag. 3: college student in a grey hoodie with earphones. 4: elderly man in a white kurta and spectacles with an umbrella. 5: woman in a green salwar kameez with a steel tiffin bag. 6: delivery rider with a plain insulated backpack. 7: porter in a red shirt carrying a suitcase on his head. 8: schoolboy in a white shirt and navy shorts with a school bag. Photoreal, natural daylight, documentary style. No text, no letters, no logos, no numbers, no signboards with writing, no watermarks anywhere in the image. No name labels.

KEYFRAME S1 (pick v2) · nanobanana_2 · InVideo · 4:3 2K still Photoreal present-day photograph, natural colour, 35mm documentary, hard late-morning sun with light haze and sharp shadows. Recreate the exact composition, camera height and lens of @Image1 (composition only: ignore its black-and-white film look, its 1896 steam train and its 1896 people). The place is the Mumbai suburban station of @Image2 VIEW A: camera locked at chest height on the platform, the track runs from the far centre into the lower-left foreground, the platform fills the right half and recedes. The train is the cream-and-maroon suburban electric train of @Image3. The commuters wear the clothes of @Image4 (mixed, many more people than on the sheet). A dense crowd of commuters waits along the right edge of the platform, several leaning out to look down the track. Far away at the vanishing point the small front of the train appears, headlamp on. No text, no letters, no logos, no numbers, no signboards with writing, no watermarks anywhere in the image.

KEYFRAME STYL (pick v1) · nanobanana_2 · InVideo · 4:3 2K still Traditional 2D hand-drawn anime cel animation frame: hard ink lines, flat colour fills, two-tone shading, painted background. Recreate the exact composition and camera position of @Image1 (composition only, ignore its black-and-white 1896 look) as a present-day Mumbai suburban station: the track runs from the far centre into the lower-left foreground, the platform fills the right half and recedes; a crowd of commuters waits along the right edge, leaning out to look down the track; far away at the vanishing point the small cream-and-maroon front of a suburban electric train appears; overhead electric wires, a steel shelter canopy, bright late-morning sun, saturated summer sky. No text, no letters, no logos, no numbers, no signboards with writing, no watermarks anywhere in the image.

SHOT S1 (take t1) · seedance_2_5_draft.r2v · InVideo · 4:3, 5 s, 480p draft, native audio @Image1 is the FIRST FRAME: start the shot exactly on this picture. @Image2 is the TRAIN: take its cream body with the maroon band, the open doorways and the front cab; ignore the sheet layout and labels. @Image3 is the COMMUTERS: take their clothes and types; ignore the sheet layout and labels. @Video1 is the motion and timing reference only: copy its locked-off camera position, the path and speed of the train, and when and where people move; never copy its black-and-white 1896 look, its steam train or its 1896 people. Create an exactly 5-second 4:3 photoreal present-day documentary shot.

Logline: a packed Mumbai platform waits as the local train appears far down the line.

World: Mumbai suburban railway platform; a long sunlit concrete platform beside a track under overhead electric wires, packed with commuters; hard late-morning sun with light haze.
Camera: 35mm spherical | 5s | STATIC | WIDE. The camera never moves, never pans, never cuts.
0-2s: the crowd along the right edge shifts and murmurs, a few commuters lean out past the yellow edge strip to look down the track.
2-5s: at the far vanishing point the train's front grows as it approaches, headlamp on; two people step back from the edge.
Locks: one train on the near track only, travelling from the far vanishing point toward the lower-left of the frame and never leaving the rails; the platform edge and the canopy stay where they are; every person keeps the same clothes for the whole shot; people never walk through the train.
Do not: move or shake the camera, cut to another angle, render black and white, show text, letters, logos, numbers, route boards or signboards with writing, duplicate a person, merge people into each other.
Audio: station ambience, crowd murmur with no clear words, a long two-tone electric train horn far away at 3 s, rails starting to hum.

Logline: the local train roars in and its front cab sweeps past the lens.
Camera: 35mm spherical | 5s | STATIC | WIDE. The camera never moves, never pans, never cuts.
0-2s: the cab comes straight down the track, growing fast, headlamp on, catenary wires sparking faintly above.
2-4s: the cab fills the left half of the frame and swings past the camera on the left.
4-5s: the first coach slides past with commuters packed in the open doorway; the crowd on the right flinches back.
Locks: one train on the near track only, travelling from the far vanishing point toward the lower-left of the frame and never leaving the rails; the platform edge and the canopy stay where they are; every person keeps the same clothes for the whole shot; people never walk through the train.
Do not: move or shake the camera, cut to another angle, render black and white, show text, letters, logos, numbers, route boards or signboards with writing, duplicate a person, merge people into each other.
Audio: a loud electric horn blast at 1 s, rising roar of wheels and motors, brakes beginning to squeal, crowd shouts.
